

Two day workshop on Conservation of wildlife in
Deccan Plateau of Maharashtra - a neglected ecosystem

Dates – 3rd and 4th March 2015

Venue – Nirmalkumar Phadkule Sankul, near Siddeshwar Temple, Solapur, Maharashtra, India

About the conference

A programme to highlight the issues of “Conservation of wildlife in Deccan Plateau of Maharashtra - a neglected ecosystem”, through networking and capacity building

Topics to be covered

1. Biodiversity
2. Grassland Ecosystem
3. Conservation
4. Livelihood and Sustainable development
5. Education and Awareness

Registration

All participants need to pay amount of Rs. 500/- towards registration fees. All payments should be made through Cash or DD in favour of Bombay Natural History Society payable at Mumbai to the organisers, Conservation of Wildlife in Deccan Plateau, Hornbill House, Shaheed Bhagat Singh Road, Mumbai, Maharashtra – 400 001.

Registration amount includes conference fee, breakfast, lunch and tea (Participants need to make arrangements for their own accommodation.)

Submission of abstracts for oral/poster presentation

Participants who wish to present should send their extended abstracts before 15th February 2015 on email wildlivedeccan@gmail.com. Acceptance of the abstracts for oral/poster presentation will be intimated by 20th February 2015 by email. Abstracts should have brief account of introduction, study area, objectives, methodology, results and discussion with word limit of 1000 words.

Important dates

Submission of abstracts – 15th February 2015

Registration deadline – 25th February 2015

Contact us:

Mr. Sujit Narwade,
Project Scientist

Tel.: 022-22821811 and mobile 9920764492 and

Mr. Mrugank

Mobile: 9673238974

Email: wildlivedeccan@gmail.com